Ultimate Knight Descriptions

Get Involved: You are now a member of the UCF community. Find your fit through the many clubs, organizations, and traditions that UCF has to offer and be a proud Knight!

Get Smart: Students are here most importantly to receive an education. Get Smart will help you develop your strengths in the classroom and highlight academic resources across campus.

Get Diversified: This component stresses the importance of stepping out of your comfort zone. Challenge yourself to get to know new people, cultures, and identities around campus.

Get Real: This tenet focuses on responsible decision making. Challenge yourself to identify your values and ethics, make responsible decisions, and represent yourself with integrity and civility.

Get Savvy: This component focuses on the importance of developing smart financial habits early in college. Be resourceful and independent by saving money, applying for scholarships, and becoming a knowledgeable consumer.

Get To Work: Select a major you are passionate about and find opportunities to enhance your marketability while in college. By discovering your strengths and building a resume, you will open the door to experiential learning opportunities.

Get Healthy: This component focuses on the importance of making healthy choices regarding your physical, mental, sexual, emotional, and spiritual health.

Get Global: Be an active participant in the global community. Create a sustainable future and contribute to the larger community through service.

Get It All Together: Being the Ultimate Knight is about finding personal balance in your life. By utilizing the knowledge you have learned, you will be successful in your time at UCF and after graduation.
